Venice, March 14. N. S.

AN Expreſs arrived here laſt Sunday from Hungary, and brought the Treaty of Truce with the Turks, which the Senate have Ratified, and ſent back to be Exchanged. By this Treaty, the Republick yields the Fortreſs of Lepanto to the Turks, and is obliged to demoliſh the Fortreſs of Preveſa, and the Caſtle of Romelia. The Iſthmus of Corinth is to be the Boundary of the Turkiſh and Venetian Dominions on the ſide of the Morea; The Republick keeps the Iſland and Fortreſs of Sta. Maura. The Iſlands of the Archipelago are to be reſtored to the Condition they were in before the War, and the Venetians are not to pretend to any Contributions from them; The Republick is to continue in Poſſeſſion of what they have in Dalmatia, and conſequently the Fortreſſes of Caſtel-Novo, Cattaro, Riſano, Clin, Sing, and Sicli, together with thoſe of Verga, Duare, and Vergora, are to remain in the hands of the Venetians. For further Regulating the Limits, Commiſſioners are to meet at ſome convenient Place on the Frontiers of Dalmatia before the 23d day of this Month, and in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners do not agree, the final Deciſion is to be left to the Emperor, and to the King of England and the States-General as Mediators. For this purpoſe the Senate have made choice of Signior Giovanni Grimani to be their Commiſſioner, who is ordered forthwith to repair thither. They have alſo choſen Signior Giovanni Lando to be their Ambaſſador to the Port, but 'tis thought he will rather chuſe to pay the uſual Fine, than accept of ſo chargeable an Embaſſy. By ſome Ships arrived here from Smyrna we have an Account, that the News of the Concluſion of the Peace between the Chriſtians and the Turks was received there with great Joy of the Inhabitants; By this opportunity we have Letters from Andrinople of the 10th of February, which ſay, The Grand Signior having the day before received Advice by an Expreſs of the Concluſion of the Peace, he went to the chief Moſque to return publick Thanks for the ſame, and afterwards the Muſti exhorted the Sultan, the Grand Viſier, and other chief Miniſters of the Port who were there preſent, to a ſtrict obſervance of the ſaid Treaties, leaſt Heaven ſhould again afflict them with thoſe Calamities they had ſuffered during the late War, which they ſo unjuſtly entred into againſt the Chriſtians. There were afterwards great Rejoicings at the Grand Signior's Court, and the Sultan intended in few days to return to Conſtantinople, and to appoint his Ambaſſadors to the ſeveral Princes and States with whom he has made Peace, and to regulate divers other Matters.

Warſaw, March 16. An Expreſs was ſent this week to Vienna with ſome Propoſals, touching the Negociation to be ſet on foot for adjuſting the Affair of Elbing, to which 'tis ſaid the Senate of this Kingdom will in nowiſe conſent, till that Place be delivered into the hands of the Mediators. It's ſaid, that the King of Poland intends to go to Pruſſia before the Meeting of the General Diet. The Queen's coming hither is now ſpoke of with much uncertainty, the laſt Letters from Saxony giving an Account, that ſhe had deferred her Journey for ſome time longer. The King has lately made the Sieur Oginsky General of his Saxon Forces that are quartered in Lithuania, which has given much Jealouſie to thoſe who are in the Intereſts of General Sapieha.

Vienna, March 12. The Officers of the Emperor's Forces have given in the Liſts they were ordered to make of the ſeveral Troops under their Command, by which it appears they conſiſt at preſent in 86000 Effective Men. The Heer Leander, who had the Inſpection of the Carriages belonging to the Army, is gone to Hungary with Directions to diſcharge a great number of Waggoners, Bakers, and others whoſe Service is unneceſſary in time of Peace. The Hungarian Noblemen and Gentlemen, who came to attend the King and Queen of the Romans in their Entry here, have Petitioned the Emperor, that he would cauſe a Diet to be held at Preſburg of the Eſtates of that Kingdom, in order to ſettle divers Matters, which his Imperial Majeſty has promiſed them to do ſo ſoon as the Condition of his Affairs will permit, and that he will go thither himſelf to be preſent at that Aſſembly; upon which, they have returned their Thanks to the Emperor, and are gone home very well ſatisfied. The Repartition of the Winter-Quarters for the Imperial Troops in Hungary, in the ſettling of which the Emperor's Commiſſioners met at firſt with great Difficulties, is now adjuſted, to the Satisfaction of the States of that Kingdom. Count Oſſing is preparing for his Embaſſy to the Port; He is to carry with him a rich Preſent of Plate for the Grand Signior. The Count of Volkra, one of the Emperor's Council, is joined in Commiſſion with Count Marſigli, to treat with the Turkiſh Commiſſioners about ſettling the Limits between the two Empires, and they will begin their Journey to Carlowitz about a week hence. The Heer Hop, Envoy from the States-General, has Complimented the King and Queen of the Romans in the Name of the States on their Marriage. The Count of Oxenſtern, Ambaſſador from Sweden, has had Audience of Leave of the Emperor, and is gone to his Government of the Dutchy of Deux-Ponts, leaving his Secretary here till another Miniſter arrives from Sueden. Our Letters from Peter-Waradin give an Account, that the Venetian Ambaſſador left that Place on the 7th Inſtant on his Return hither; And that the Heer Till, Secretary of the Imperial Embaſſy, arrived the 12th at Salankemen, where he expected the Turkiſh Secretary, in order to exchange with him the Ratifications of the Treaty of Truce; Count Schlick, the Emperor's Second Ambaſſador at the ſaid Treaty,
